Annual Meeting for the State Institutional Committee

On Saturday, October 14 from 1:00-4:00 PM, the Christian Science Committee for Institutional Work in Texas will be holding their Annual Meeting at Third Church of Christ, Scientist, Austin. This yearly gathering is an opportunity for anyone to join with statewide volunteers, chaplains, and mentors in hearing a mid-year report on institutional work, as well as an inspirational address. This year's speaker is George Nutwell, CS, a former chaplain, who will deliver a talk titled, "Progress is the maturing conception of divine Love."

If you are not able to attend in person, a Zoom option is available. The link can be found on 3rd Church's website: 3rdChurchCSAustin.org.

Annual Meeting for The Leaves

The Leaves, a Christian Science nursing facility in Richardson, Texas, is holding its 2023 Annual Meeting on YouTube on Saturday, October 14. The meeting will be focused on the theme, "Working Together with One Purpose." You'll hear from The Leaves' staff and from special guest speakers:

- Cindy Safronoff. Cindy has authored books (Crossing Swords and Dedication) and will speak about how churches have been formed in the Christian Science Movement in the past.
- John Cochran III, CS. John works with the Community of Christian Caring working group (through The Principle Foundation) and will speak about what community looks like and how they're currently working to bring people together.
- Patty Nuernberg. Patty, a Journal-listed Christian Science Nurse will speak about how her work is bringing people together and joining in with communities all over the world.

See The Leaves website for more information, and fill out the form to have the YouTube link sent to your inbox.

The Gentle Beam

work, watch, pray

"The song of Christian Science is, 'Work — work — work — watch and pray.'"

(Message to The Mother Church for 1900, Mary Baker Eddy, p. 2:7-8)

The useful and the great,
The thing that never dies,
The silent toil that is not lost,—
Set these before thine eyes.

Up, face the task and work;
Fling ease and self away;
This is no time for thee to sleep;
Up, watch, and work, and pray.

(Christian Science Hymnal, No. 183:2-3)
